Margaret Offers 5 Great Ways to Snap Out of Hibernation!

1. Watch an inspirational DVD of Pat or Linda. Remind yourself of why you got into horses.

Margaret's favorite video on youtube is – Merlin the Bullfighting video (link here)

"I might be a little biased since I have a Palomino Lusitano that I hope grows up to be just like Merlin!"

Share your favorite clips with us!

2. Make a plan for a future event, a midsummer ride with friends during warmer weather. Pull out a map and find that special place.

3. Spend some undemanding time and motivate your horse to get ready for the upcoming riding season.

4. Make it fun! Have a play day with friends, join Margaret's play days, play some music, add a new obstacle.

Margaret's favorite CD to ride to is Shall We Dance. What's yours?

5. Just get out and ride! Your horse is your number one motivator. Let your horse inspire you!

Sick of winter?

Consider this...cantering on a pristine beach with the sun on your back, not a worry on your mind, because you're riding a well-trained, calm but playful horse. This was Maggie Shaw's experience in Playa Junquillal on the Nicoya Peninsula in Costa Rica. She rode Fadango, a criollo, in a horseman's halter on the beach and through the mountains and would highly recommend the experience. You see, it was a big step for Maggie to feel comfortable riding a horse that she was unfamiliar with in such a setting and she attributes her courage to her experience with the Parelli program. For further information visit www.paradiseriding.com to contact Erika who can arrange a one day to multi-day ride (lunch included), prices ranging from $50-$160 depending on length of ride etc.

"It's rare that you can rent horses that are so safe and responsive." –Maggie Shaw

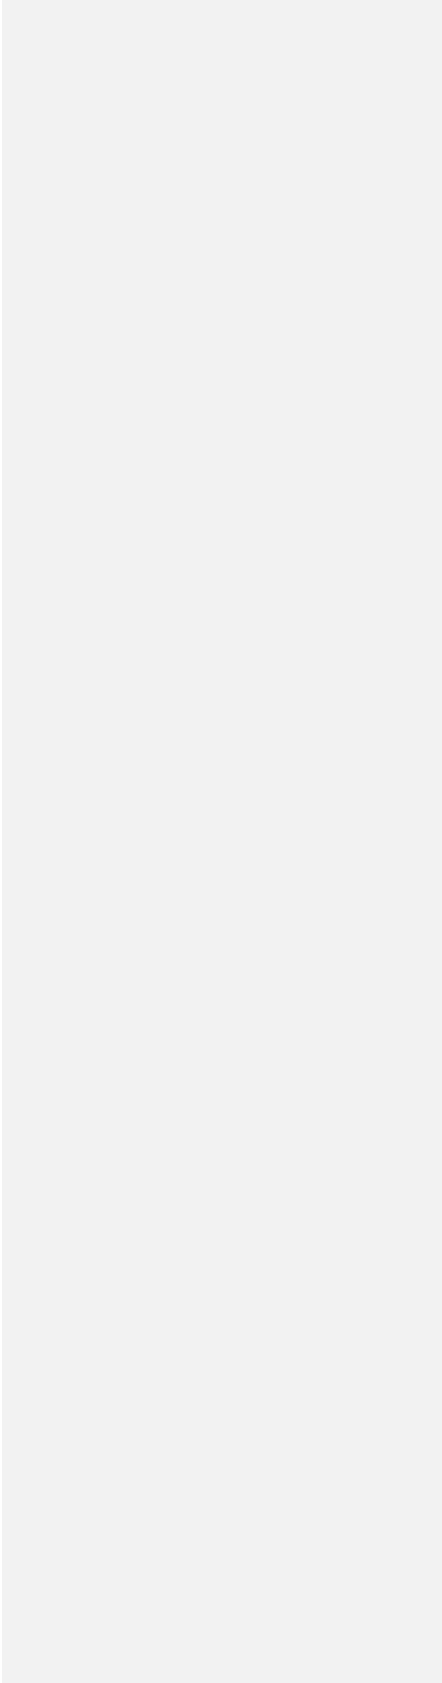

Natural Performer Saddle For Sale on ebay

Contact: Donna Williams dlw26@mac.com

DESCRIPTION:

This custom saddle has been cleaned and conditioned more than it has been ridden (4x). It is dark brown, has a 16.5 seat size for med. build or tall, slender male or female rider approx. 5'3"-5'8" in height and between 125-165lbs. My inseam is 29" but saddle has ample room for adjustment to leglength. Saddle tooled with Parelli Horseheads Pattern, Savvy Club member price is $3096 for saddle alone. Comes with buck rolls, breast collar ($89), Theraflex Nat. Performer Saddle Pad ($330), and Mohair Cinch ($44), all Parelli products. Valued at $3559. Available NOW. This saddle was one of the first of the new line as an update from the FUSION. I'm selling it because I have a Parelli Fusion Saddle that fits me better, and I've switched to dressage riding which requires a different saddle. This saddle is gorgeous and works beautifully with the Theraflex Pad (properly shimmed) for your horse's comfort. I've cared for it like a baby. Conditioned several times according to the saddle maker's suggestions and kept covered inside my house. There are a couple scratch marks, visible in the photos, but you have to look hard to see them. This saddle is in great condition and it should fit any average sized horse (with the exception of some draft breeds) withuse of the Theraflex saddle pad system.
